

Kenya National Innovation Agency

INNOVATORS SELECTED TO PARTICIPATE IN THE LEADERS IN INNOVATION FELLOWSHIP PROGRAMME - 2018

NAME OF INNOVATOR	PROJECT TITLE OF INNOVATION
1. Dennis Kipkogei Chang'ach	The Automated Solar Powered Evaporative Cooler- Makaaridi Cooler
2. Roy Allela Mohamed	Sign-IO: A sign language to speech translation glove to address the language barrier between sign language users and those who are not conversant with sign language
3. Levit Barry Nudi	Tambua: A mobile application meant to help consumers scan on products and determine whether they are genuine or counterfeit before making any buying decisions.
4. Brian Onyiego Bosire	UjuziKilimo: An innovative sensor technology and comprehensive database to collect and analyze farm data to help farmers and agriculture players make better decisions.
5. Emmastella Wangui Gakuo	Maziwa Plus - A cooling on transit solar powered milk cooling system with milk PH testing device for small holder Dairy Farmers in Kenya.
6. Stephen Mwongela Moses	Solar Powered Cold Storage Units
7. Kenneth Guantai	A Motorized Battery Powered Electrical Handcarts
8. Jamal Mohamed Hassan	Nitron™ Soil Testing: A Soil Nutrition Management tool that provides a platform in which smallholder farmers are empowered to make informed decisions through access of analyzed information on the nutrition of the soil.
9. Fredrick Makathima Koome	Handheld Compost Aerating Tool
10. Esther Atieno Were	Savika Biojiko: An institutional cook stove designed to use pellets or briquettes made of bio-waste.

11. Zacharia Patrick Kimengich	Pediatric Hip Spica Table with Extension Traction
12. John Otieno Okumu	Use of beam house solid waste in a tannery as a source of protein concentrate to formulate feed for fish
13. Eric Murithi Kithinji	Upesy - Mobile Emergency Response App
14. Betty Wanjiru King'ori	The Domestic Avocado Oil Extractor